

O God Whose Voice

Leonard Cochran

Allen Brings

♩ = c. 100

1. O God whose voice all na - ture hears, As - sure our hearts, ac - cept our tears. May
2. And as we try our faint a - men, Be swift, O God, thy Word to send, Who,
3. For we have made a world of sound So great our cries for help are drowned. A -

1. love a - lone then choose to speak What love a - lone may dare to seek.
2. when we search for what to say, Will teach us once a - gain to pray.
3. bove this dis - cord, pain, and fear, His voice for ours must reach thine ear.