

The Benefit of Going to LAW

Brian Wilbur Grundstrom
 Words by Benjamin Franklin
 Performance Time - 4:45 min.

Not too fast (♩. = c. 64)

Soprano

Guitar

Two Beg-gars tra - v'ling a - long Two Beg-gars tra - v'ling a - long One blind the o - ther lame. Picked up an Oy - ster Picked up an Oy - ster Oy - ster Oyster Oy-ster Oy-

20 mp f

ster on the way — to which they both laid claim: The mat-ter rose so high that they re - solved to go to law as of - ²ten rich-er fools have done. — as rich - er fools have —

20

23 mp f

23

27 mf

done. — who quar - rel for a straw Two Beg - gars tra - v'ling a - long Two Beg-gars tra - v'ling a - long —

27

31

31

35 mp

a law — yer took it straight in hand — who knew — his busi² ess

35

39 mf

was — to mind² nor one nor the o-ther side — but make — ²the best of² the

39

43 mp
cause hmm

46 f
hmm as al - ways in the Law's the Case So

49 he his judge - ment gave, And Law - yer like² he thus re - solved What

51 ff
each of them² should have; ff Blind Plain-tiff, ___ lame ___ De fen - dent, ___

54 Share ___ yes share² The Friend - ly Laws im - par - tial Care. ___ A

57 shell - for him² - A shell ___ for thee² A shell - for him² - A

The Benefit of Going to Law

60

shell for thee The mid - dle is the lawyer's fee The 63

mid - dle is the lawyer's fee hmm

66

hmm

69

p 2