

Book of Genesis 2:1-25

Patrick Riley

Text from: The American
Standard Version Bible

Performance time 10:20

♩ = 122

The musical score is arranged in a vertical stack of staves. The top four staves are for woodwinds: Flute, Oboe, Clarinet in Bb, and Bassoon. The Oboe, Clarinet in Bb, and Bassoon parts include melodic lines with slurs and dynamic markings of mp. The Flute part consists of whole rests. The next two staves are for Piano, with both treble and bass clefs containing whole rests. Below the piano are five vocal staves: Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass, and Cello. All vocal parts consist of whole rests throughout the score. The score is divided into five measures by vertical bar lines. The first three measures are in common time (C), and the last two measures are in 2/4 time. A key signature change to one sharp (F#) occurs at the beginning of the second measure.

The first system contains four woodwind staves: Flute (Fl.), Oboe (Ob.), B-flat Clarinet (Bb Cl.), and Bassoon (Bsn.). The second system contains two piano (Pno.) staves. The third system contains five string staves: Soprano (S), Alto (A), Tenor (T), Bass (B), and Cello. The score is in 6/4 time and includes dynamics markings such as p (piano) for the woodwinds. A rehearsal mark '6' is present at the beginning of each system.
