

MY UNEXPECTED VISIT TO ANCIENT LUXOR

GEORGE F. SPICKA

6. The Viziers Debate

1

Harpicord

1

Harpicord Alternates Right & Left Hands

Formless Improvisation - Not Too Frantic - For About One Minute

Double Bass

1

Bass Plays Arco. Throughout - - ->

Formless Improvisation - Not Too Frantic - For About One Minute

Oboe

1

Formless Improvisation - Not Too Frantic - For About One Minute

Flute

1

Formless Improvisation - Not Too Frantic - For About One Minute

Detailed description: The image shows a musical score for a piece titled '6. The Viziers Debate' by George F. Spicka. The score is for four instruments: Harpsicord, Double Bass, Oboe, and Flute. Each instrument part begins with a first-measure rest (indicated by a '1' above the staff) and is followed by the instruction 'Formless Improvisation - Not Too Frantic - For About One Minute'. The Harpsicord part includes the instruction 'Harpicord Alternates Right & Left Hands'. The Double Bass part includes the instruction 'Bass Plays Arco. Throughout - - ->'. Each part concludes with a final measure containing a whole note with a fermata. The score is written in 6/8 time, as indicated by the '6' and '8' in the time signature of each staff.